D'd rather go higher as you also have an b with the same height and the bar for A is higher and symmetrical, giving it a heart if you want a try
 I'd rather go for a vertical left stroke
 I also tried a middle pixel here, but I looks too asymmetrical this way (leaning to the left) in 8b...
 I suggest trying a different construction: Y: or V:
 I modeled more pixels to have a better shape with the same size as the others
 I'd try a narrower version for the LC (maybe just pixel narrower)
 It is preferable (more universal) to have a more trace: Ç 3 this is crazy!!
 you don't need to put a pixel down in the middle of the top part better keep some symmetry, such as such a design it is you are going to change the same 3, not the middle have as well
 you can also have it simple
 you can also have it simple
 this could be compared to having rounded top at the B for you don't have that in the latin example
